ESG Accelerates Growth With Opening of East Coast Office

DENVER, CO – Execution Specialists Group (ESG), a strategy execution-focused management consultancy, today announced that the organization has opened an East Coast office.

In addition to the corporate headquarters in Denver, Colorado, this new Boston location strengthens ESG's presence on the East Coast and is an opportunity to better serve its growing client base.

“The decision to expand into the northeast is a logical step in our business growth strategy,” said Mark Newhall, founder and CEO, ESG. “ESG was founded ten years ago in Denver, and while we remain committed to Colorado, many of our large enterprise clients in the Fortune 500 space are based in the northeast. This new location provides better in-market access to our growing client base and in recruiting top talent to serve our clients.”

Stephen Danizio, Director of Business Development at ESG, will head up the Boston office. Danizio is returning to Boston after two years at the Denver headquarters. The new location is north of Boston at 99 Conifer Hill Drive in Danvers, Massachusetts.
